Special Instructors Positions

Position Description & Details: The Department of Computer Science and Engineering invites applications for two special instructor positions to begin on August 15, 2021. We are primarily seeking candidates who will be teaching undergraduate courses in Computer Science and Information Technology. These positions also require engagement in outreach programs and institutional and public service.

Applicants must have a completed PhD in Computer Science, Information Technology, or related fields by the beginning date of employment. Candidates must have excellent communication skills, ability to teach introductory computer science and information technology courses including programming courses, and willingness to learn new teaching techniques and technologies. College teaching experience in computer science or information technology is preferred. Candidates should have an appreciation of and commitment to the value of diversity and working with a diverse faculty and student body.

Applications should be submitted by March 01, 2021. Review of applications will begin on March 2, 2021 and continue until this position is filled. Expected start date is August 15, 2021. The application package should include a letter of intent, a statement of teaching, curriculum vitae, and three letters of reference. The package should be submitted at https://academicjobs.oakland.edu/postings.

Oakland University is a public institute located in southeastern Michigan with over 20,000 students. The department is currently offering BS in Computer Science, BS in Information Technology, MS in Computer Science, MS in Cyber Security, MS in Software Engineering and Information Technology, and Ph.D. in Computer Science and Informatics. For information about the department and Oakland University, please visit the respective homepages.

Creating and maintaining a diverse, equitable and inclusive campus is a strategic priority for Oakland University. To this end, we are seeking applications from individuals who are interested in and committed to supporting our Diversity Equity and Inclusion institutional values. It is the policy of Oakland University that there shall be no discrimination based on race, sex, color, religion, national origin or ancestry, age, height, weight, familial status, marital status, disability, creed, sexual orientation, veteran status or other prohibited factors in employment, admissions, educational programs, or activities.

Oakland University is a nationally recognized doctoral university of high research activity located on 1,443 acres of scenic land in the cities of Rochester Hills and Auburn Hills in Oakland County, Michigan. The University has 142 bachelor’s degree programs and 138 graduate degree and certificate programs. Academics include programs in the College of Arts and Sciences, School of Business Administration, School of Education and Human Services, School of Engineering and Computer Science, School of Health Sciences, School of Medicine and School of Nursing.

Oakland University is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer and encourages applications from women and minorities.