FROM: Scott DeLoach

RE: Salaries for Graduate Research Assistants

Effective July 1, 2019, the standard rate of pay for Graduate Research Assistants (GRAs) within the Department of Computer Science (CS) will be set as follows.

Student Status	Standard Biweekly Pay
MS student	$700
PhD student with BS, pre-RPE	$800
PhD student with MS, pre-RPE	$875
PhD student post RPE	$925

All grant proposals submitted after July 1st must include these rates (as a minimum) and all GRAs hired after July 1st should be paid these amounts. In addition, college of engineering policy requires that GRAs working half-time (a 0.5 tenths) appointment must have their tuition paid.
