Who We Are

At ConocoPhillips, we're dedicated to finding and producing the oil and natural gas the world needs. It's what we do. We're also committed to our SPIRIT Values—Safety, People, Integrity, Responsibility and Teamwork. It's how we do it. Headquartered in Houston, Texas, we're a global team with operations and activities in 16 countries. Together, we're driving performance while being accountable to our stakeholders, communities and each other.
