Learn why Georgia Tech's MS QCF Program is among the Top-Ranked for Financial Engineering programs in the US.

An intensive curriculum emphasizes practical application of finance, mathematical modeling, statistics, and analytical and computational skills.

Prepare for a rewarding career in investment banking, trading, asset and wealth management, consulting, risk management, data science, financial technology, and more...

Recent employers include: JP Morgan, Morgan Stanley, Barclays, Bank of America, SunTrust, Goldman Sachs, UBS, EY, BlackRock, Millennium Advisors, Invesco, Voya, Chicago Trading Company, and Dimensional Fund Advisors!

Average starting compensation of QCF graduates = $110k+

On-campus session includes building tour of CODA - Tech Square which features World’s Tallest spiral staircase, collaborative work spaces, and high-performance computing space / data center, etc.

Fall 2020 Deadline:
- Early Round: October 15th
- Standard Round: January 15th (extended to February 15th)
- Space Available: March 15th

Spring 2021 Deadline:
- Standard Round: September 1st
- Final Round: October 1st

Join us in-person or online to learn more!

Can't make either event? Email info@qcf.gatech.edu to schedule a one-on-one with an admissions advisor to discuss your candidacy.